On and after Sunday, the 13th of December, the schedule of the North Carolina Railroad will be changed. The Western bound mail train will leave this city at 5:38 instead of 6:10 as formerly. No change in the arrival and departure of other trains.

The cotton market was not as ac-tive yesterday as the day previous, on account of the non-activity of buyers. Prices opened at 131 for low middling, but in the afternoon it was haid to get off at 13. The first lot of stained cotton came in yesterday, and sold at 11, 12 and 121, according to condition. Hereafter we will add to our general market report stained as well as first class goods.

We are collecting all the points and incidents of a Legislative excur-sion to Fayetteville from this city on Wednesday last, and 'faith we'll prent Ithem." 'Tis said a 'hop' was given to the excursionists by some of the good citizens of the old town. As one member came back "hopother "hopped" out of his buttons, and a third would probably have gone farther than this had he not been taken "quite iil" before the "hop."

In the House yesterday a bill was discussed at considerable length, to declare the owners of sheep-killing dogs a misdemeasor. Mr. Moring, of Chatham, formed the bill, thought it was necessary for the protection of the farmers, and said he would vote for it, provided that "Jack" Wood-son, the well known canine of the Daily News office, was exempted from its provisions. Thus amended the bill passed. When "Jack" heard of the use of his name in such a connexion, he became highly indignant and swore in his wrath to seek revenge. He says he is not fond of mutton-the first licking he ever got was by a pet lamb, not Mary's little lamb, but another lamb, and since that time he never "keered to progic along a sheep."

NASH COUNTY.—In our report of the proceedings of the Grand Lodge of Masons yesterday, we statep that Mr. James S. Battle, of Edgecombe, had been appointed Grand Marshal of the Grand Lodge. Yesterday we received a note from Mr. Griffin, Representative from the county of Nash, seating that his county claimed Mr. Battle as one of its best citizens, and as the whole county enjoyed the high honor thus conferred, desired us to make the correction. We do so willingly, and at the same time congratulate old Nash upon this recognition of the worth of one of its best citizens, and the Grand Lodge on its fortunate selec-

THE TRAP DOWN AGAIN.-Francis S. Woodson, Jr., (our little bud) was united in the holy bonds of wedlock to Miss Emma Patillo, of Yancey-ville, in that town, on Wednesday. We heard of the boy's rash intention and warned the unsuspecting victim of the evil in store for her, but young folks like, they walked up to the altar of sacrifice of their own free will and accord. We congratulate the groom on his fortunate selection, but as for the bride, we must ask the prayers of the congregation in her behalf.

ORPHAN ASYLUM.—The cash con lributions to this charity for November amounted to about $1 086.31. The contributions in kind were very lib-eral, consisting of clothing, vegeta-bles, provisions, leather, shoes, hats,

THE CLOSE OF CONFERENCE.-The Daily Advocate of this city, published during the recent session of the Conference, thus speaks of the closing of the Conference on Tuesday:

The presiding Bishop has by his talents and genius elicited admiration : by his firmness. has enforced respect and obedience and by his gentleness and piety has won the love and devotion of the whole Conference, ministers, delegates and visitors. It is seldom, if ever, the case that a man impresses himself so completely and favorably upon the community as Bishop Marvin has done since his arability, his kindly manner, his entes of every tongue. Mabson, the colored Wil-mington lawyer, is in the city for the purpose of soliciting his Excellency, Governor Brogden, to commute the sentence of Martin, the boy murderer, to imprisonment for life. Martin is condemned to be hanged next Friday. He is only 14 years of age, quite ig-norant, and may not have had any idea of the enormity of his crime at the time it was done. Of this the Governor can judge after due examination into the merits of the case,

The Disaster on the Virginia Midand Railroad -- Forty Persons Slightly Wounded -- A billed --- Knights Templar Injured,

An accident which came near being attended with great loss of life ocginia Midland and Great Southern Railroad about 4:20 yesterday morning, at Orange Courthouse, Va.,-a point seventy-four miles south of Alexandria. The passenger train bound north, under charge of Capt. John Fossett, had been detained some time near Gordonsville on account of rival in this city. Running out of time, Grange preaching powers and his deep and all pervading godiness, are the fond machinery again got out of fix, and another stop was made to repair damages. Just at this time a stock train, which had been ordered to follow in the wake of the passenger-train, made its appearance around a sharp curve in the road, and despite the efforts of the engineer his engine ran into the sleeping-coach of the passenger train with great force, detion from him, and earnestly pray that Heaven will long spare him for the service of the Church of which taching the coach from the ladies' ear, and earrying terror to its occupants, who were nearly all sleeping. It adjourned yesterday morn-for some cause jumped from the speeding train, followed closely by

At this juncture the situation became critical, promising the destruction of the remaining sixty passengers, when two brave young men named Spears and Kemp, crawled through the baggage car and over the tender to the engineer's cab, and shut off the steam, by which means the train was brought to a halt, after running six miles. It was found that the ladies' car had also been badly wrecked and a large number of the occupants wounded. In all, some forty persons were more or less injured, and it seemed a miracle that all escaped with their lives. Amongst the travelers were a bride and groom from Wisconsin, occupying berths in the sleeping car. The groom was pitched out of bed and badly cut about the head and face, while the bride escaped without a scratch. The passengers unite in exonerating Capt. Fossett from any dereliction of duty, but are of opinion that there was a want of proper precaution somewhere. A train was speedly dis-patched from Alexandria to the cene of the disaster, and the wounded reached that city yesterday after-noon. Nearly all the male passengers wounded were Knights Templar, re-turning from the triennial convention at New Orleans. Their injuries amounted chiefly to scratches and bruises; some had head and face cuts and bruises, which will show rather badly when they return home to their wives from the great "lodge meeting." Arriving in Baltimore, the Knights Templar and other pas-sengers bound North went on sengers bound North went on through. AN IMPORTANT DECISION.—A case recently decided in the Massachusetts Supreme Court, reported in the Advertiser, may be of interest to those who leave their houses unoccupied in the summer, or at other times. The policy was written upon a dwelling-house "occupied by ten-ants," and stipulated that if the risk should be increased by the actor with the knowledge of the insured, then the policy should be void. The house was afterwards left vacant and the windows were boarded up for several months. Testimony of experts showed that insurance companies were wont to consider an unoccupied house as a worse risk than one which was occupied, and to charge a considerably larger premium for insurance; nevertheless, that if a house was occupied the risk varied materially with the character of the tenants, some of whom might be worse than no tenants at all. The court held that the company was entitled to an instruction to the jury that, though the plaintiff might have recovered had the fire been caused by the acts of bad or vicious tenants, yet he could not recover if the non-occu-pancy of the building had rendered the risk greater than it would have been with tenants of ordinary care and habits. The degree of risk con-templated by the parties must be measured by the average and ordinary character of tenants, not by extreme and exceptional cases, which might occur and increase the actual risk beyond the original anticipa-

AYES.—Messrs. Albright. Anderson, Boddie, Clement, N. S. Cooke, French, Hargrave, Holton, Irwin, Jenkins, LeGrand, Linney, Marler, McCauley, McElroy, McMillan, Mills, Pegram, Shaw, Smith, Standford, Stickney, Sugg, Waddell, Williamson, Worthy and Young—27.

the effect that it shall not be lawful for any Constable, Sheriff, or other collecting officer, to pay any money collected under any process issued from a Court of a Justice of the Peace to said Justice, provided that the party in whose favor said process issued shall at any time after the judgment is obtained give the said collecting officer notice in writing not to pay said money or any part thereof.

Mr. Linney warmly advocated his substitute.

Mr. Cooke, of Franklin, opposed the substitute and urged the adoption of the bill requiring a bond of Mr. Waring sustained the views advocated by Mr. Cooke. He be-lieved one portion of the State should be willing to make sacrifices in order to give relief to other sections.

Mr. McElroy said the adoption of the original bill would have the effect of abolishing the office of Magistrate visal. Referred. By Mr. Mizzell, a bill to amend an in his District, as no man in his section would go to the frouble of giving the bond required. Mr. Busbee thought this bill should vent colored men from holding of-fice, but to protect persons having monies placed in the hands of mag-istrates. He cited an instance within his own knowledge where a white magistrate had appropriated to his own use claims placed in his hands, and there was no redress. This bill was sadly needed in the Eastern portion of the State, and he thought it should be given his people.

Mr. Love was here to legislate for the whole State; he respected the wishes of the people of every section of the State, and he desired doing nothing for one section that would injure another; but he thought the substitute of Mr. Linney would accomplish all that was desired, and would work no injury to the West. Mr. French advocated the original

TO OUR SUBSCRIBERS.

Under the new postal law, which goes into effect on the first of January, 1875, we will be required to pre-pay the postage on the NEWS. This will add much to the expense of publication, but NO ADVANCE will be made in the subscription price on either our DAILY or WEEKLY. The price, as heretofore, will be:

DAILY:

One year, (postage paid) $7.00. Six months, Three WEEKLY:

One year, (postage paid) $2.00. Six months, 1.00. This will prove quite a reduction in the price of the News, as the postage now paid by subscribers is $1.20 upon the Daily, being virtually a reduction to that extent. This, with the recent enlargement of the NEWS, will make it the cheapest paper in the State. Under the new system the cash plan will be rigidly enforced, as we cannot afford to send the paper on credit and pre-pay the postage, and all subscriptions not renewed by the first of January will be promptly discontinued We hope every sub scriber will promptly renew.

JORDAN STONE, Manager.

THE Hon. J. S. BLACK, of Pennsylvania, has written a letter to a friend defining his position upon the Senatorship of the State, and virtually withdrawing from the contest. He thinks his chances of election slight, in a contest in which so many men eminent for ability and public services are candidates. Judge Black thinks that whoever may be chosen will do much to redeem the fair name of Pennsylvania, sullied, as it has been by the sins of

SIMON CAMERON and his supporters.

We are really indebted to our contemporary for its kindly nosomewhat equivocal by the little adverb now.

We reciprocate every expression of good will to the News, its editors and proprietors, and we shall endeavor to conduct it in such a way as to deserve the commendation of our brothers of the "fourth estate."

THE NUMBER of "strikes" by the workingmen of the country indicate an unhealthy condition of the trade of the country. The matter deserves consideration, since by reason of the cessation of work in many of the largest establishments of the North, thousands of artisans have lost employment and are, with their families, exposed to the bitter sufferings of a winter without a sufficiency of food or clothing.

Thank God! In all the South honest labor commands a living remuneration and none of our people need suffer, who will work.

CORRECTION.

In justice to our friends of the Wilmington Journal, we desire to state that we were in error in saying that the publication of the President's Message in full in the News of Tuesday was the first occurrence of the kind. The Journal has always, heretofore, given it similar publication. We did not intend to deprive our valued contemporary of any of its earned honors, and regret that the statement was made.

The News was, however, the only paper in the State that took the Message this year.

WE HAVE on hand and shall publish to-morrow a second contribution from our correspondent, "North Carolinian," upon finance and kindred subjects. The question is of such paramount importance, that we earnestly urge those who have given the matter attention to give the public the benefit of their thought and examination. The columns of the News are freely tendered for the discussion of all questions, which affect the material well-doing of our people. Somehow, in some honorable and just way, we sincerely trust a disposition will be made of the State debt. As it now stands, it is fruitful in injury to the reputation and prosperity of the State.

Florida papers predict that at least a thousand places to plant orange groves will be purchased along the St. John's during the next three PROFESSOR HOPPIN, of Yale, author of the "Life of Andrew Hull Foote, Rear Admiral, United States Navy," does justice to the character of a gallant officer of the Confederate army by giving a truthful statement of the occurrences of the surrender of Fort Henry, by General TILGHMAN, of the C. S. A., to Admiral FOOTE. The statement as published and credited in the North reported Admiral Foore as saying : "Sir, you did well to surrender, but you should have blown my boat out of water before I would have surrendered." Prof. Hoppin states that FOOTE himself said he complimented TILGHMAN for his gallant defense, and tendered him every possible civility.

Thus fact after fact is developed, showing how grossly inaccurate and unjust are many of the accounts of the incidents of the war, which have had publication in the newspapers, and even in the histories of the struggle.

A TIMELY SUGGESTION. We sincerely hope that the Congress will give heed to that recommendation of the message of the President, relating to pensions to the soldiers of the war of 1812, resident in the Southern States. The President's recommendation is based upon that of the Secretary of the Interior, and is as follows: "The report of the Secretary of the Interior, herewith attached, gives much interesting statistical informa-tion, which I abstain from giving an abstract of, but refer you to the reyiding the oath which pensioners must subscribe to before drawing their pensions cuts off from this bounty a w survivors of the war of 1812 residing in the Southern States. I recommend the restoration of this bounty to all such. The number of persons whose names would thus be restored to the list of pensions is not large. They are old persons, who could have taken no part in the rebellion, and the services for which they were awarded pensions were in defence of the whole country.' As the President says, the names; which would be restored to the pension-roll, by the abolition of the oath referred to, are few in number. The relief afforded, however, would be very great. For the most part, those who would be most benefitted are indigent persons, unable to work by reason of the infirmities of age. They served the country, the whole country," faithfully and well, and now that decrepitude has come with years, they should be cared for by the country. We presume that none of them were participants in the late struggle; but even were it otherwise, a tice, even though it may be made | generous nation might forget, what | still give aid to those, who in their days of strength, freely gave time and service to the general govern-

STOWELL AND THE CADET SHIP.

Verily, the way of the transgres sor is hard. The Hon. (?) W. H. H. STOWELL, of the Petersburg District, was we believe the only Republican elected to the 44th Congress from the State of Virginia. He is a member of the present House, having been elected thereto

By virtue of his position as a member of Congress, as one of the perquisites attached to the place, he had the nomination of a cadet to each, the Military and Naval Academy, of the country. He gave the appointment to the latter institution to one Schoolcraft, who was thereupon admitted. Itlis now charged that STOWELL's recommendation of SCHOOLCRAFT was for a pecuniary consideration, and JOHN P. BRADY, of Richmond, a Republican member of the Virginia Legislature, has been to Washington and laid the matter before the House and asked an investigation. Mr. Brady is specifie in his charges, which are two in number. First : that SCHOOLCBAFT, the appointee, was not at the time of his appointment, a resident of the 4th Congressional District of Virginia. which district STOWELL represents: Second: that the recommendation, as stated above, was made for money paid either to STOWELL himself, his agent or attorney, or secured to be paid. Among the witnesses from whom summons is asked is the Hon. GEO. M. ROBESON, Secretary of the Navy. Brady states in his letter to Speaker Blaine communicating the facts and asking inquiry, that he has reason to believe that "essentially important letters and papers pertaining to this subject" are in Mr. Robeson's possession. If his statement be true, the inquiry naturally arises, why has not Mr. Rob-ESON brought the matter to the attention of the House of his own accord? It seems somewhat remarkable-it would be remarkable in any administration save that which GRANT is Chief-that the Secretary of a Department, a member of the sion, documents tending to establish fraud in the distribution of cadetships, and keep them closely guarded from the scrutiny of the body authorized by law to investigate the fraud and punish the offender. The favors of the government have been so long the subject of barter that we should be rejoiced to see this man, if guilty, be brought to trial for the offense alleged against him. He is not a genuine Virginia representative-in no manner reflects the sentiments of the intelligent, worth; people whom he pretends to represent in Congress. We hope Mr. Brady will "ery aloud and spare not" until the House shall be forced to investigate.

The New Orleans Times declares that two per cent. tax upon personal and real property is all that the people of that city will endorse, while the minimum of expenditures will consume upwards of three-fourths of the annual revenue from this source. In short, it thinks that the city has reached the end of its credit, and that nothing short of the prompt payment of existing liabilities will be of any avail.

The Hon. L. Q. C. Lamar, of Mississippi, has been interviewed on the subject of the speakership of the next House of Representatives. He de-clared that it would be so extremely njudicious on the part of the major y to put forward a Southern man for the position that no such idea could be seriously entertained. The galleries of the National House of Representatives on Monday were. as usual, very much crowded, but it was noticeable that the gallery on the north side, which had been given up to the colored element almost exclusively heretofore, was pretty well bleached with pale faces, a fact which caused a good deal of pleasantry.

The papers of both parties in Erie, Pa., advocate the election of the Hon. W. A. Galbraith, of their city, to the United States Senate. He is a pronounced Democrat.

The Message-Its Disfigurements. We gave yesterday a hurried glance at the President's annual message. We propose to refer to its repulsive features in a fair manner. We look upon it as one of the crudest and least dignified of all the messages that ever emanated from a President of the United States. It is less like a paper that should come from the chief ruler of a great nation than any other we ever read. Its discussions of finance and of Southern affairs are beneath the dignity of such a paper. The financial discussion is unworthy of the editorial columns of a third-rate hard-money paper; while its comments on the condition of the Southern States and the rights of the negro, so far from being worthy of the President of the United States, would be unworthy of a mere leader They in the Republican party. sound more as if they came from a man who supposed himself to be a mere guardian of the negroes, and that in the performance of his guardianship there were no local rights of the States or of the white people which he is bound to respect .- Richmond (Va.) Dispatch.

Senator Conkling has some celebrity as a statesman of bad temper. Some years since he had a controversy with Mr. Blaine, the present Speaker, and they have had no rela-tions of a personal character since. The other day a busy Republican called on Mr. Blaine. You are mistaken," says the Speaker, "I have better relations with Mr. Conkling than any man in Washington, for we don't speak."

Opposite Dr. McKee's Office. RALEIGH, N. C., Are daily receiving, and will keep con-stantly on hand

We take this occasion to return our sincere thanks for the very liberal patronage received at the hands of the public since our commencing business, and believing that our success, in a great measure, is attributed to the fact that we keep only A FULL AND CAREFULLY SELECTED STOCK OF our friends and the public generally, cheap for CASH or BARTER. Our stock was bought within the past two weeks, and our goods are all and having been bought since the recent decline, we will compete with any house in town. Our house is new and spacious, and our facilities for handling goods are un-surpassed. We propose to do a STRICTLY CASH BUSINESS, WITHOUT VARIATION, and hence another reason why we will not be undersold. We are determined to sell at low figures, and we only ask a trial to prove it. Consignments of all kind of country produce solicited. All orders sent us, ACCOMPANIED WITH THE CASH. will be promptly and carefully executed.

We hope by strict personal attention to all business intrusted to us, to merit our share of the public patronage.

Respectfully.

ADAMS & MOORE.

In addition to the above business, I will continue my Cetton Commission business as heretofore, at my New Store on Wilmington street, where I have unequaled facilities for handling and storing cotton. Liberal cash advances made on cotton stored with me. I make cotton a specialty, and would say to farmers that Raleigh, as a cotton market, cannot be excelled, North or South. Thankful for past favors, I hope by strict personal attention to my business in the future, to merit a still larger portion of the public patronage.

Very truly.

BRADLEY'S PATENT MADE FROM

READ THE FOLLOWING TESTIMONIALS: From Prot. W. G. Simmons, Wake Forest College, North Carolina. WAKE FOREST COLLEGE, N. C., October 4, 1873. Mr. C. P. Knight—Dear Sir: We have for several months been using your Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint on our College Building, and are well pleased with it. Though it was applied by one having no experience in such work, yet we have a good job. We shall continue to use it—believing that in point of economy, durability and facility of application, it is superior to any other pigment offered in the market.

W. G. SIMMONS.

From Messrs. Engelhard & Saunders. Editors and Proprietors Journal. WILMINGTON, N. C., December, 26, 1873. We desire to call especial attention to the advertisement of "Bradley's Patent Enamel Paint," We can recommend it from a knowledge of its merits. Some of the employees of this office having purchased some of this paint from Mr. C. P. Knight, of Baltimore, have us-d it and speak in the highest terms of it, after a tradof several months. While it is as durable as ordinary paint, it has a much finer finish, and its cost and convenience will recommend it to all in need of paint.

From S. McGill, M. D. THE PLAINS, FAQUIER Co., VA., Feb. 6, 1873. THE PLAINS, FAQUIER Co., VA., Feb. 6, 1873.

Mr. C. P. Knight—Sir: The paint came safe to hand as ordered, 2 kegs, 5 gallon each, and 3 buckets, I gailon each. As practice was sleek, I dit the job myself. Two weeks (not constant work) completeds to house, two coats; the last coat I applied thick, and it is now generally conceded that, for "enamel," like hardness, and body and harmony of colors, there is not a handsomer job in the place. I have saved sixty-five dollars by the operation—which is an item just now with the Southern people. It should be generally adopted in this State. Any country lad can apply it. I have never dabled in such stock as "testimonials," but I feel so forcibly the great adaptability of your "Enamel Paint" to the wants of our people—in excellency of material, in ceauty of color, and in the fact of its being "ready mixed," that I give you permission (if it is desirable to you) to make what use you think proper of this letter.

Very respectfully and truly,

S. McGILL, M. D.
